The Court determines that it is in the best interest of this Court that the lead Court Security Officer (LCSO) have the authority to designate 40 hour per week flexschedules for CSO's in order to allow them to accommodate the needs of the Court family as determined by the Chief Judge, so long as such scheduling does not in any way jeopardize the performance of the CSO's duties for the Court and the Court family.

DONE this the 28th day of May, 1999.
